

GAD Vision

To be a gender-responsive industry-driven State University in the ASEAN Region by 2030.

GAD Mission

The Pangasinan State University shall provide a gender-sensitive, human centered, resilient and sustainable academic environment to develop dynamic, future-ready, and gender-responsive women and men capable of addressing the needs of the local and international communities and industries.

GAD Strategic Goals:

SG 1: Gender-based, industry-driven, and innovation-focused curriculum program.

SG 2: Gender-sensitive and responsive research, extension, and innovative programs.

SG 3: Gender-neutral governance.

SG 4: Gender-fair and high performing human resources.

SG 5: Gender-responsive internationalization Program.

About Us:

PSU Urduja Gender and Development (GAD) Resource Center is dedicated to promoting gender equality and empowering individuals, regardless of gender, to participate fully in economic, social, and political life. Through advocacy, capacity-building, and strategic partnership, GAD works to challenge gender-based inequalities, empower marginalized communities, and create inclusive environments that foster sustainable development. Our programs focus on education, health, economic empowerment, and leadership, striving to break down barriers and build a more just equitable world for all.

GAD Agenda

G - enerate gender-responsive and gender-neutral programs, activities, and projects of the University.

E - liminate all forms of gender discrimination in all PSU mandates and policies.

N - uture the potentials of the marginalized sectors for a sustainable social responsibility.

D - evelop a relationship with GAD-partner agencies and stakeholders for a diversified and globalized academic community.

E - ncourage a gender-responsive Research and Extension Programs.

R - ealize result-oriented and gender-based enabling mechanisms to accelerate and catalyze gender mainstreaming for the University and clientele.
